October 29, 2017 – “Navigating the Teenage Years” – Pastor Ken Harrell

Daniel 1

Introductory statements

1. Your child will be tempted to _____ everything.
2. Boundaries don't _____ freedom; they _____ freedom.
3. As a parent, you must decide what _____ you will teach and pass along.

1. Major on _____ v1-7

Two things your child needs to know

1. _____ they _____.
2. _____ they _____.

Every single day your child is hit with the hammer of compromise. There is only one thing that will stand against it... a wall of convictions that has been built in their heart. As a parent, you have to make this decision... "what convictions am I going to teach and pass along to my children?" The reason is that these convictions will guide them in making decisions when they find themselves in tempting situations.

- A. Begin this _____ in their life.
- B. _____ convictions to the Word of God.
2. Major on _____ v8a

Note: The choices we make don't _____ our character. The choices we make _____ our character.

Character is the will to do what is right, as God defines what is right, regardless of the consequences.

Character demands two things

- A. A firm belief in an _____ of right and wrong.
- B. Being committed to do what is _____, regardless of the consequences.

One of the greatest lessons you will ever teach your teenager
The best way to handle temptation is not to make a decision when you are tempted, but to make a decision before you are faced with temptation.

3. Major on _____ v8b,10

When Daniel said no, he was putting his life on the line.

Note: If you teach your child to say "yes" to _____, they will be equipped to say "no" to the _____.

4. Major on _____ v11-13

Note: A major factor is that Daniel had been taught to respect _____.

Three things a parent must do

1. _____ them _____.
2. _____ to them _____.
- A. Do not _____.
- B. Do not _____.
3. _____ them _____.
